

The Story of Reality

A person is silhouetted against a vibrant, multi-colored Milky Way galaxy in a dark night sky. The galaxy's colors transition from purple and blue at the top to orange and red in the middle, and finally to yellow and green at the bottom. The person stands on a dark, rocky ridge, looking up at the starry expanse.

The Story of Reality

Gregory Koukl

Four Facts

- Jesus died on a cross and was buried in a tomb
- The tomb was empty Sunday morning
- Eyewitnesses testified they saw the risen Jesus
- Skeptics were convinced they saw Jesus

In Between Worlds

- Because Jesus can heal humanity's moral brokenness, he can heal the brokenness of the world
- Everyone will live forever

Perfect Justice

- Books of death
- Book of life
- Some are raised to eternal life - others to eternal death

Hell

- It is real - a place of banishment from God's goodness
- A place of unspeakable torment
- The suffering will never end

Eternal Destruction

- The one who is guilty is not in the best position to assess the seriousness of their crimes
- The proper punishment for an offence is never proportionate to the amount of time it takes to commit it
- The severity of a wrong is not determined solely by the act itself, but also by the one against whom the wrong was committed

Perfect Mercy

- A desire for a far-off country
- “We shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2)
- One day the world will no longer be broken

